

TUNDE ADELEKE Carleton 5-10 180 CB RS

One of the most electrifying players in the CIS, threatened opposing special teams units throughout 2015 with his prime time moves and dynamic mobility. Adeleke is a kick return specialist and punt returner for

NATHANIEL HAMLIN Carleton 6-1 205 CB FS

Named an OUA First Team All-Star for a second consecutive season in 2015, and his play in the Ravens secondary spoke volumes about his commitment to the team and his will to win. Hamlin had a team-high 42.5 tackles (37 solo, 11 assisted) as well as 1 sack and 3 pass breakups. His 129-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown against York on October 9th tied a CIS record, and one that he now shares with teammate Tunde Adeleke.

ROBERT WOODSON Calgary 5-11 197 CB

Had a breakout season in 2015. He was the defensive MVP in Canada West and a first-team All-Canadian after leading the nation in interceptions with five and adding five pass knockdowns. Using his outstanding athleticism, was the Dinos' top cover man in the secondary and was routinely matched up against the opposition's top receivers – and needing to record just 15.5 tackles on the season, teams were unsuccessful when throwing his direction.

KWAKU BOATENG Wilfrid Laurier 6-2 250 DE

A high performing consistent stud. League Awards: 2016 CIS Men's Football Second Team All-Canadian, 2016 OUA Men's Football First Team All-Star, 2015 CIS Men's Football Second Team All-Canadian, 2015 OUA Men's Football J.P. Metras Award, 2015 OUA Men's Football First Team All-Star, 2014 CIS Academic All-Canadian, 2013 OUA Men's Football All-Rookie, 2013 CIS Academic All-Canadian.

KAY OKAFOR St. FX 6-4 275 DE

He maintained his status as a solid pro prospect despite an ankle injury that hampered his 2016 season. Gets in the backfield with regularity. Has not played a lot of football coming from Nigeria, but has learned quickly.

JUNIOR LUKE University of Montreal 6-1 287 DE DT

MVP Lineman of the National Bowl. In 2016, Luke had 15.5 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, six sacks, one forced fumble and one interception for a Montreal defense that gave up the fewest points (72) and yards per game (267.4) in Canadian university football.

FABIAN FOOTE McMaster 6-2 285 DT

After recording 17 tackles and 2.5 sacks in his first three seasons combined, Foote blossomed in 2016, logging 17 tackles, including eight for losses and seven quarterback sacks in eight games. From Jamaica, has not played a lot of football but has obviously grasped it.

DSEAN THELWELL Carleton 5-11 190 FS

4 INTs in 2015.

FREDERIC CHAGNON University of Montreal 6-4 234 LB

While CFL teams want to move him inside but feel he is too light for that, the like of tight ends has them feeling that he is too tall for the outside. Just the opposite of the NFL.

JEAN-SIMON ROY Laval 6-3 285 OL

Strong? Put up 225 39 times at the CFL combine. While CFL teams seem to be questioning some technique stuff - that stuff can be taught.

BRADEN SCHRAM Calgary 6-5 290 OL

This a solid lineman. He has athleticism, strength and really excels in his fundamentals. Will be much sought after in CFL draft as well.

QADR SPOONER McGill 6-4 314 OL

Tough, nasty lineman. Just moves defenders out of the way with strength and athleticism. Concentrates on technique.

KWABENA ASARE Carleton 6-8 296 OT OG

A fourth-year offensive lineman, Asare had an outstanding junior campaign for the Ravens, as he added sheer size and protection on a massive o-line that only allowed 4 sacks.

GEOFF GRAY Manitoba 6-6 310 OT

In his fourth campaign with the Bisons last fall, was named a Canada West All-Star, the conference's most outstanding down lineman, a national nominee for the J.P. Metras Trophy and a First Team All-Canadian. After starting all eight league games for Manitoba, the engineering student was one of two players selected to represent Canadian university football at the prestigious East-West Shrine Game held in Florida on January 21, 2017.

DANTE DJAN Laval 6-4 230 QB WR

Transfer from St. FX where he saw very limited action. Played in East-West Bowl. a physically big, athletic and strong player who has dabbled at WR as well. In 2015, Calgary Stampeders invited him to training camp as part of the CIS-CFL development program.

JOHNNY AUGUSTIN Guelph 5-10 200 RB

Hard runner, very good receiver. Has all the skills for a back, especially in the third-down category. Can, however, carry the load.

ANTONY AUCLAIR Laval 6-5 256 TE FB

Versatile player able to block and run good routes. Has good hands and a good size. Ran a 4.84 at the East-West Bowl. Transferred from the CJFL as a tight end after playing as a quarterback there. Auclair made 17 catches for 229 yards and two touchdowns in eight regular season games for the Rouge et Or last season. He recorded a team-high 70 receiving yards and one touchdown in Laval's 2016 Vanier Cup championship victory over Calgary.

NATE BEHAR Carleton 6-0 200 WR

Ranked as the no. 1 wide receiver and one of the top 10 football players in the country coming out of high school. Team leader in receiving yards and receptions in each of the past two seasons. In 2015, Behar was named a First Team All-Star while ranking sixth in receptions in the OUA with 39 while racking up 82.3 yards per game and 4 touchdowns.

DANNY VANDERVOORT McMaster 6-1 190 WR

The three-time USports All-Canadian pass-catcher caught 34 balls for 631 yards and five touchdowns in 2016. In four years at McMaster, Vandervoort accumulated 29 receiving touchdowns, which is a program record. After choosing McMaster, among many other Canadian universities who were recruiting him, then-head coach Stefan Ptaszek said Vandervoort was the No. 1 player on their board. As a freshman, made 31 receptions for 594 yards and eight touchdowns to earn the 2013 Peter Gorman Trophy award as USports football rookie of the year. Vandervoort made six receptions for 73 yards with a long of 22 in the 2016 CIS/USports East-West Bowl.
