

HINWA	ALLIEU
Nebraska-Kearney
6-5	290
DE	DT	Projected Position: DL

2019: 1st team All-MIAA. Named All-MIAA for the 3rd time. Hard working lineman, big-bodied could move inside. Has the size and intangibles to be a disruptive force. The Lopers occasionally shifted Allieu to an inside spot on the defensive line this season. Allieu had added strength to his frame this offseason so he could shed blockers more quickly and react more quickly to plays on the inside. Stats: 38 tackles 8.5 TFL's, 4.5 sacks. Career: 158 tackles (82 solo) over 44 games, 24.5 TFL's, 15.5 sacks, 14 QB hurries.

MARCUS	BRENT
Northwestern Oklahoma
6-4	266
DE		Projected Position: DL

2019: All-GAC honorable mention. Finished the year with 38 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Brent collected 15 solo tackles, while starting in all 11 games this season and he recovered a fumble. His biggest game this season came against Harding when he wrapped up 10 tackles, one for a loss.

XAVIER	CIARDO
Michigan Tech
6-3	263
DE		Projected Position: DL

2019: Completed the 2019 campaign with 37.0 total tackles and was second on the team with five sacks. He owned the same ranking in tackles for a loss with 12, costing opponents 57 yards. Ciardo also had one forced fumble, a pass breakup, and helped the Huskies tie the school single season record for most sacks at 30. Ciardo ended his career at Tech with 92.0 total tackles, 7.5 sacks, and 20 tackles for a loss. Ciardo was also an All-GLIAC Honorable Mention honoree in 2018 and 2019.

AUSTIN	EDWARDS
Ferris State
6-5	275
DE		Projected Position: DL

2019: As the recipient of the 2019 Gene Upshaw Division II Lineman of the Year Award presented by the Manheim Touchdown Club, Edwards received an automatic invitation to participate in the 95th annual East-West Shrine Game. Along with being FSU's first-ever Upshaw Award recipient this past fall, Edwards became the first defensive player to win the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Player of the Year Award since 2005 after leading the Bulldogs to an undefeated regular season, a second consecutive GLIAC Championship and a No. 2 ranking nationally. He followed up an All-America-caliber season in 2018 with his third All-GLIAC First Team selection and was a consensus first-team All-America choice this fall. Anchoring one of the stingiest defenses in Division II, Edwards compiled 17.5 tackles for loss (-106 yards) along with 10.5 sacks (-87 yards) and 64 total stops this campaign with both a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. The three-year starter was a three-time All-GLIAC honoree and three-time All-American who helped FSU to its sixth consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff appearance this year and the region's top seed along with a fourth-straight trip to the national quarterfinals or beyond. The two-time All-GLIAC First Team pick was a finalist for the second consecutive year for the Cliff Harris Award as one of the nation's top small college performers and is a highly-regarded NFL prospect. He was named to the 2019 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America First Team and also chosen as the D2Football.com National Defensive Player of the Year along with being a candidate for the 2019 Harlon Hill Trophy presented to Division II's top all-around performer. 2018: All-region second team. All-GLIAC First Team. National finalist for the 2018 Cliff Harris Award, which is presented to the nation's top small college defensive player.

MIKE	EHLKE
Northwest Missouri
6-5	265
DE		Projected Position: DL

2019: Two straight years of earning honorable mention all-MIAA status. Started all 11 games at defensive end. Had 48 tackles (27 solos), 6.0 TFLs, 2.5 sacks and two fumble recoveries. 7 QBHs. He had an 18-yard scoop and score against Northeastern State (Nov. 2). 2018: All-MIAA Honorable Mention.

Chauncey	Haney

SHELDON	SCHMIDT
Fort Hays
6-5	265
DE	Projected Position: DL

2019: Earned an All-MIAA honorable mention for the first time in his career on the defensive line. Schmidt led FHSU defensive linemen in tackles this year with 43 and sacks with four. Recorded 126 tackles, 22 tackles for loss, 12 sacks, and six fumble recoveries in his four years on the field for the Tigers.

CH'AIM	SMITH
West Chester
6-4	255
DE	Projected Position: DL

All-PSAC East defensive end returned to the fold for his final year of eligibility. Quick first step, doesn't let the offensive lineman get his hands on him. Elusive in his pass rush. Disrupts the quarterback's timing. Teams need to keep a second blocker in the backfield to slow him down. 2019: Was named a finalist for the Cliff Harris Award and Smith and earned first-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) on Dec. 3. His 20.5 tackles for loss paced all defenders in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) and His 8.5 sacks ranked sixth in the PSAC and 33rd nationally.
