

JEFF	ARNOLD
Indiana (PA)
6-3	285
OC	Projected Position: OL

Four-time all-region and All-PSAC West. IUP's starting center since redshirt freshman season. 2019: Don Hansen Division II All-American 3rd team. Line surrendered only 16 sacks in 370 pass attempts; while team's rushing average was 4.9 yds/carry. 2018: Honorable mention All-American.

CALTON	BAKKER
Southwestern Oklahoma
6-3	310
OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: Chosen to participate in the Dream Bowl. Two-year starters for the Bulldogs, anchoring the offensive line during the last two seasons. 2018: Started each of the first nine games (eight at RT, one at RG) before missing the final two games due to injury.

DEVON	BRADSHAW
West Virginia State
6-2	300
OC	Projected Position: OL

A four-year starter on the WVSU offensive line. He was named First Team All-MEC during his sophomore year, Second-Team All-MEC during his junior year, and collected honors from the conference for the third consecutive year in his senior season.

MATT	CELLA
Kutztown
6-3	285
OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-American honorable mention. Three-year starter and 2019 team captain. He directed an offensive line that led the way for one of the top offensive seasons in 104 seasons of KU football. The Golden Bears set a program single-season record with 33 rushing touchdowns and gained 5,837 yards of total offense --second most in a season all-time. Cella is a three-time All-PSAC selection and two-time Don Hansen Gazette All-Region honoree. He started all 13 games for the Maroon and Gold this past fall. KU's 3,544 passing yards were its third most in a season, while its 2,293 rushing yards ranked fourth. The Golden Bears allowed the fifth fewest sacks per game in Super Region 1 with 1.31 per game.

TREVOR	CURLE
Saginaw Valley
6-3	300
OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-GLIAC Second Team. Anchored the SVSU offensive line that led the offensive attack in posting 397.7 yards of total offense per game, ranking third in the GLIAC. The Cardinals were ranked second in the league in scoring, posting 30.6 points per game over the 11-game slate. 2018: All-GLIAC Second Team

CHRISTIAN	DiGALBO
California (PA)
6-2	280
OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: DiGalbo earned All-PSAC West Second-Team laurels for a consecutive year. Started all 11 games this season and helped anchor an offensive line that paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher and helped the Vulcans rank among the top five in the league in scoring offense and fewest sacks allowed. 2018: All-PSAC West 2nd-Team.

CALL	DYER
West Alabama
6-4	357
OC	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Don Hansen NCAA Division II Football All-America team. Don Hansen NCAA Division II Football All-America team. After redshirting in 2015, Dyer started 47 straight games to wrap up his UWA career. Dyer became just the second player in UWA history to earn all-conference accolades for four years. The has earned All-South Regions accolades three times. 2018: All-Region and All-Gulf South Conference. 2017: All-Region and All-GSC selection. 2016: All-Gulf South Conference.

HAYDEN	EATINGER
Missouri Western
6-3	280
OC		Projected Position: OL

4-year starter. 2019: First Team All-MIAA. MIAA Academic Honor Roll. Third Team Don Hansen All-Super Region Three Team. started all 12 games. contributed to a Griffon offensive line that rushed for over 2,500 yards. 2018: First Team All-MIAA. 2017: Second Team All-MIAA. 2016: Honorable Mention All-MIAA.

JEFF	FORD
Michigan Tech
6-3	318
OC		Projected Position: OL

2019: Helped anchor the front line that helped put up some impressive offensive numbers in 2019. The Huskies averaged 19.0 points and 357.7 yards per game, including 140.9 yards per game rushing and 216.8 yards per game passing.

ZACH	GRAHAM
Northwood
6-3	304
OC	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Mainstays on the offensive line for the Timberwolves this season, starting 21 of a possible 22 games. Graham started mostly at center. Became starter at left guard in 2017, playing in all 11 games.

SETH	JONASSEN
Bloomsburg
6-3	320
OC		Projected Position: OL

Son of former Charger's and Cardinal's Eric Jonassen. Originally played on both defense and offense lines. Three-year starter at center.

TUCKER	KISEL
West Texas A&M
6-4	320
OC		Projected Position: OL

2019: Blocked for a Buff offense that rushed for 31 touchdowns and averaged 363.2 yards of total offense per game. Two-year starter at center.

JAKE	LACINA
Augustana
6-4	300
OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: Named a team captain. Lacina, the 2019 Rimington Trophy award winner, has garnered four postseason awards including being named to two different All-America teams on the offensive line. Led an offensive line that ended the regular season 19th for tackles for loss allowed. Lacina earned First Team All-NSIC South Division honors and was named an AFCA First Team All-America selection. 2018: All-NSIC First Team, All-Super Region Four 3rd team.

BRAEDEN	LOFTUS-FOX
Eastern New Mexico
6-4	310
OC	OG Projected Position: OL

2019: All-LSC Honorable Mention. Helped anchor a unit that led all NCAA Division II football teams in time of possession, controlling the rock for 35:32 minutes per game while ranking second with 361.8 rushing yards per contest. The Hounds ranked seventh in the nation with a .710 fourth-down conversion rate and 14th in first-downs per game, averaging 23.5.

JARED	MACIEJCZAK
Chadron State
6-5	295
OC	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: 2nd team All-Super Region Four, All-RMAC First Team. Helped produced more than 100 rushing yards per game at a clip of 5.4 per carry. In addition, the Eagles' O-line blocked for the No. 21 total offense and No. 22 scoring offense in the nation.

ZACH	ORURUO
Minnesota-Duluth
6-5	305
OC	Projected Position: OL

Sat behind an All-American until getting his start in 2019. Blocked in a well-balanced offensive line that gave up only 16 sacks.

GRANT	STEWART
Colorado Mines
6-2	305
OC	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: Named an AFCA, Associated Press, D2football.com First Team and D2CCA First-Team All-American. A two-year captain, Stewart started all 13 games for RMAC champion Mines (12-1), with 11 starts at left tackle and two at right tackle. He was a finalist for the Gene Upshaw Award, finishing sixth in the overall voting. Stewart was a 2019 College Football Yearbook America and Lindy's Preseason All-American, and was named First-Team All-RMAC. He leads an offensive line that at the end of the regular season ranked in the NCAA D-II top-10 in first downs (2nd), total offense (8th), and rushing offense (6th). Mines had top team rushing games of 440, 400, and 395 yards this year, including six games of 275+ yards as they've produced a 1,000-yard rusher in Michael Zeman. In pass protection, the line helped a true freshman QB pass for 2,825 yards and 29 touchdowns with a 73.7 percent completion rating. The versatile Stewart started every game of his career and graduated as the Mines career leader in starts (49), playing two seasons at center, one at right tackle, and primarily at left tackle in 2019. He has three RMAC championship rings (2016, 2018, 2019) has been captain for two of those, and in both 2016 and 2018, Mines had NCAA D-II's #1 total offense. Impressively, Mines has produced a 1,000-yard rusher in each of Stewart's four seasons, and the team has produced four of its top five all-time rushing yardage games during Stewart's career. Stewart was a 2018 Don Hansen Honorable Mention All-America, D2CCA Second-Team All-Region, and First-Team All-RMAC selection, and 2017 Second-Team All-RMAC pick.

NICHOLAS	STREUBEL
Central Washington
6-3	305
OC	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Streubel earned Don Hansen Super Region Four Second Team honors and Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year for the conference. He anchored an offensive line which was the bulwark for the Wildcats' offense in 2019. Behind the front five, the Wildcats rushed for 2,328 yards and 21 touchdowns. They averaged 211.6 yards per game and 5.7 yards per carry. Through the air, the Wildcats' offensive line provided CWU quarterbacks with protection as they threw for 3,224 yards and 37 touchdowns. They averaged nearly 300 yards through the air per game at 293.09. 2018: First Team All-GNAC. 2017: D2CCA All-Region First Team

NICK	ZIMMERMAN
Sioux Falls
6-5	300
OC		Projected Position: OL

A three-time Academic All-NSIC selection, Zimmerman was named second team All-NSIC in 2019 and honorable mention All-NSIC a year ago (2018). Zimmerman has graded at 84 percent with 247 knockdowns in his career. This season, Zimmerman has served as a captain on a USF team that reached the NCAA DII playoffs with an 8-4 record. He has graded at 87 percent with 70 knockdowns for a team that ranked second in scoring (35.3 ppg) third in the NSIC in total offense (427.6 yards).

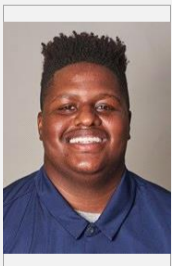

WARSAME	ADEN
Tiffin
6-6	305
OG	OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Third team All-GMAC. Helped man a powerful offensive machine on the line. TU led the conference in both points per game (43.2) and total yards per game (507.8). Those marks are also 7th and 5th in Division II, respectively. Tiffin did it both on the ground and through the air, ranking 32nd nationally in passing offense at 262.3 yards per game and 15th in rushing offense at 245.5 yards per game. As a team, the Dragons ran for over 200 yards in nine games, including two games of over 300 yards on the ground. TU scored 31 rushing touchdowns, tops in the conference, for an average of nearly three per game. Tiffin's 262.3 passing yards per game was second in the GMAC and 30 touchdowns was tops in the conference. Previously named First Team All GMAC.

TYLER	ALLISON
Ferris State
6-3	300
OG		Projected Position: OL

2019: Don Hansen's Football Gazette All-Super Region Three squad. 2018: 2nd team All-GLIAC. Finally, the GLIAC Offensive Lineman of the Year, Allison had a standout campaign up front for the Bulldogs, helping FSU to its second consecutive GLIAC Championship and an unbeaten regular-season. The four-year starter paved the way for one of the nation's top offensive units throughout his career and was a three-time All-GLIAC choice. This season, he helped the Bulldogs rank among the nation's top 10 teams in total offense, averaging more than 500 yards per game, and the Bulldogs are also ranked in the top 15 in rushing at 260-plus yards a contest. Allison was a four-year letterwinner in the FSU program and previously was also named to the 2019 American Football Coaches Association (All-America Team this year).

SAMUEL	ANTOINE
West Florida
6-4	315
OG		Projected Position: OL

Transfer from Glenville State. 2019: 2018 All-GSC 1st. Team. Antoine completed a standout career with 13 starts in 2019 while appearing in all 41 contests during his three seasons at UWF. In 2019, the Weston, Florida native helped UWF average 412.3 yards of total offense, with 281.2 through the air and 131.1 on the ground. 2018: All-GSC Second Team. 2017: All-GSC Second Team

NATHAN	BELISLE
MSU Moorhead
6-6	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

Iron man, 'hard-hat and lunch pail' type of guy,". 2019: Named to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America Second Team. Was a four-year starter on the Dragon offensive line, having never missed a start in his career with 45 straight starts. In 2018 he was an All-NSIC North second-team selection as an offensive lineman and honorable mention this season.
2018: All-NSIC North Division Second Team.

HUNTER	BOWERS
UT-Permian Basin
6-5	310
OG	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: All-LSC Honorable Mention. Mainstays on the Falcon offensive line throughout his career at UTPB.

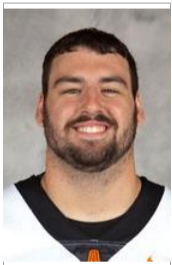

AARON	BRITTON
Gannon
6-5	305
OG	Projected Position: OL

Transferred from NCAA Division I University of Pittsburgh prior to the 2017-18 academic year. Joined the Pitt team as a training camp walk-on and redshirted.

JARED	DEVOE
Missouri Western
6-4	315
OG	Projected Position: OL

Transfer from South Dakota State. 2019: MIAA Academic Honor Roll. Started ten of twelve games played. Contributed to a Griffon offensive line that rushed for over 2,500 yards .

ANDREW	DICKINSON
Findlay
6-3	312
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Earned his second consecutive second-team all-G-MAC selection. With his second-team honor, the Oilers placed four of their five offensive linemen on either first or second team. Blocked for one of the top offenses in the country. Anchored a line that thrived on protecting the backfield, allowing just 1.36 sacks per game and 4.6 tackles-for-loss per game, both tops in the conference. Also paved the way for a rushing offense that ranked second in the conference at 221.4 yards per game and were key to Findlay's offense that scored 37.7 points per game, second in the league and 27th in the country. 2018: Second team all-G-MAC. 2017: Second team all-G-MAC.

GAVIN	DOWD
New Haven
6-4	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Named to the Northeast-10 All-Conference 3rd team. Blocked for an offense that gained 1900 yards passing and 1881 rushing. 2018: Named to the Northeast-10 Academic Honor Roll for the spring semester. Started all 12 games as the left guard on an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10.

MAX	FISTER
Saginaw Valley
6-3	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-GLIAC Honorable Mention Team. Max Fister anchored the guard position on an SVSU offensive line that led the offensive attack in posting 397.7 yards of total offense per game, ranking third in the GLIAC. The Cardinals were ranked second in the league in scoring, posting 30.6 points per game over the 11-game slate.

PARKER	FRANZEN
Minot State
6-3	295
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: 2nd Team-All NSIC. Key cog for an offensive line that allowed just 13 sacks on the season. That total was the third-best in the Northern Sun. Their most impressive game as a group may have been against a Concordia-St. Paul defense that finished the season with the most sacks in the conference and second in the nation. The Beavers did not allow a sack in that contest and were a significant factor in the Beavers gaining 505 yards of offense, including 308 yards rushing.

BRANDON	HARRISON
Tusculum
6-3	315
OG	OT
	Projected Position: OL

2019: His insertion in the lineup played a key role as team started the season 1-5 following three losses to nationally-ranked teams, the Pioneers rebounded winning four of its last five contests to post a 5-6 overall record and tied for fourth place in the SAC with a 4-4 league worksheet.

RICH	KELLY
Concordia-St. Paul
6-5	315
OG	OC
	Projected Position: OL

2019: D2CCA All-Super Region 4 Second Team, All-NSIC South Division First Team, 2018 All-NSIC South Division Second Team, Two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District Team (2018 & 2019), Official nominee for the Gene Upshaw Lineman of the Year award, 4-time NSIC All-Academic Team selection in 2019, Three-time team captain. Has not allowed a sack in last two seasons, and allowed just one QB hurry in 2019. Season grade of 95% as a senior after becoming the first OL under current staff with a 90-plus percent grade in 2018 (91%). Tallied 17 knockdowns on the year. Had three game grades of 98%, all coming against NCAA Super Region 4 playoff teams (Sioux Falls, Minnesota State, at Augustana). Had four other 95% game grades in victories (at Upper Iowa, at Wayne State, Bemidji State, SMSU). Earned a 96 percent game grade against Mineral Water Bowl invitee Winona State in season finale. Produced a 90-plus percent grade in 16 of 22 games between junior and senior seasons. Did not grade below 87 percent on the season 2018: All-NSIC South Division Second Team. Played in Dream Bowl.

NOLAN	KERN
Sioux Falls
6-4	322
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: A three-year starter, Kern had a monster season in 2019 when he led USF with 89 knockdowns and had the second highest grade among USF offensive linemen at 88.21 percent. He had a positive rep on 591 of 670 plays. He allowed just 2.5 sacks. In his career, Kern, who made his second All-NSIC team after earning second team honors a year ago, has 252 knockdowns. 2018: All-NSIC second-team.

DAN	LIST
Colorado-Pueblo
6-3	293
OG	Projected Position: OL

The ThunderWolves finished 2nd in the RMAC in rushing offense with 179.5 yards per game. The team's 34.6 points per game was good for 3rd in the league. The Pack rank 4th in the conference in sacks allowed (2.0) and were 5th in total offense (373.5 ypg). CSU-Pueblo quarterbacks only threw three interceptions during the regular season to rank 1st in the RMAC and 4th in Division II.

DEION	MALONE
Texas A&M-Commerce
6-3	295
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Graduate transfer from Arkansas, where he rode the bench, established himself as a dominant force, paving the way for the Lion attack that averaged 407.9 yards and 36.1 points per game.

PHILLIP	McDOWELL
Carson-Newman
6-5	315
OG	Projected Position: OL

Took over the Eagles' all-time record in career knockdowns in week six of 2018 season. Carson-Newman's first two-time All-American since 2009 and 2010. McDowell has helped clear the way for an offense that ranks fifth in the country in rushing with 292.7 yards per game, 25th in scoring in 36.8 points per game and 39th in total offense at 417.3 yards per game. McDowell extended his school-record for knockdowns by an offensive lineman with another 44 knockdowns this year. He has a whopping 101 for his career, more than double Robby Ignagni, the previous record holder. Additionally, McDowell cleared the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in his final three seasons in an orange and blue jersey. 2018: All-American, All-SAC first team, Don Hansen all-region. 2016: All-SAC First Team, Don Hansen All-Region Team. 2017: All-SAC First Team.

MIKE	MOLLOHAN
Urbana
6-5	305
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-Super Region 1 squad. All-MEC 1st Team. Part of an offensive line that blocked for a balanced offense that controlled the clock and gave up only 19 sacks.

LEVI	MURPHY
East Stroudsburg
6-4	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

Starter since freshman year. 2019: 2019 College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Division II Academic All-America Second Team. Murphy started all 11 games for the Warriors this season at left guard. He helped the team rack up 2,340 passing yards and 1,353 on the ground on the year. The Warrior offense ranked sixth in the PSAC this season with 30.7 points per game.

JACOB	OLSON
Missouri Western
6-3	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Third Team All-MIAA. MIAA Academic Honor Roll. Started all 12 games. Contributed to a Griffon offensive line that rushed for over 2,500 yards. 2018: All-MIAA Honorable Mention.

JP	PIERRE
Tarleton
6-4	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

Transfer from Southeast Missouri State: where he started 11 games at right guard in 2017. Was part of an offensive line which allowed 14 sacks, third-fewest in the Ohio Valley Conference. 2019: Helped the Texans become the No. 2 offense in the nation and the OL ranked eighth in the nation during the regular season with fewest sacks allowed. Named first team All-LSC selection as well. Helped the offense account for 45 points per game and 531.7 yards per game, including 3,207 total rushing yards. The Texan offense amassed 600 yards of offense three times in a game this season, which was a school record.

RYAN	PODGORSKI
Slippery Rock
6-5	300
OG	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: Podgorski earned his first career All-PSAC honor after starting every game this fall at the left guard position. He has graded out above 87 percent after playing more than 700 snaps this season for one of the best offensive units in the nation. The Rock offense ranked first in the nation in passing efficiency (190.9) and fourth down conversions (80.0 percent), second in completion percentage (71.5 percent), fifth in scoring offense (46.9 points per game), passing offense (321.4 yards per game) and first downs (285), sixth in third down conversions (51.8 percent), 10th in red zone scoring (91.4 percent), 11th in total offense (497.8 yards per game) and 16th in turnovers lost (12).

QUINN	POLASKI
McKendree
6-5	320
OG	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: Honorable mention All-GLVC. Polaski played all four seasons along the Bearcats' offensive line, and was a starter in each of the last three campaigns. He was the veteran along McKendree's front five and helped block for a team that averaged nearly 400 yards per game of total offense. Bearcat quarterbacks were sacked just 12 times this season.

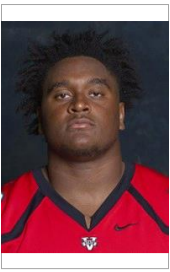

JAKE	RIEDERER
Washburn
6-4	310
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Appeared in six games on the offensive line before an injury cut short his season. a member of the MIAA Academic Honor Roll. 2018: Named honorable mention all-MIAA after helping to anchor an Ichabod offensive line which allowed only 13 sacks as the Ichabods had the No. 4 passing offense in the league this year at 243 yard per game. Started all 11 games on the offensive line at center or right guard. Named Ichabod offensive power player of the week after the Pittsburg State game and a two-time Ichabod big hit award winner. 2017: Started 10 of 12 games on the offensive line. Named Ichabod offensive lineman of the week after the Missouri Western game. Also received the Big Hit award after the Missouri Southern game. A member of the MIAA Academic Honor Roll. 2018: Honorable mention all-MIAA.

ROCHELIN	ROMAIN
Tuskegee
6-5	320
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Strong run blocker. Good size with flashes of top-notch potential. 2018: Don Hansen NCAA Division II All-Super Region Two,

ADONIS	SEALEY
Valdosta State
6-3	295
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: He had an outstanding season anchoring an offensive line that averaged 522.1 yards per game for third nationally. The Blazers averaged 38.9 points per game to lead the GSC and were 20th nationally in scoring offense. Sealey blocked for Harlon Hill finalist junior Rogan Wells, while Sealey earned multiple All-America honors from different outlets. In addition, he finished third in the prestigious Gene Upshaw Award for the most outstanding lineman of the year in NCAA Division II. He capped a two-year run at VSU after transferring from Presbyterian College. Sealey started 25 games and helped the Blazers to 24-1 record, including a national championship in 2018. 2018: All-Super Region Two 1st Team, 1st team All-GSC.

RYAN	SPELHAUG
Northwest Missouri
6-3	285
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Third-team all-MIAA. Started all 14 games in 2019. Spelhaug started 27 consecutive games on the offensive line over the past two seasons. He helped the Bearcat offense rank No. 1 in the nation in red zone offense. The Bearcats ranked No. 9 in the nation in scoring at 41.9 points per game. 2018: Third-team all-MIAA.

STEPHANE	TANGUAY
Simon Fraser
6-5	325
OG	Projected Position: OL

Tanguay played in the Ontario Junior Football League with the Ottawa Sooners. He played primarily at tackle and was an Ontario Football Conference all-star. Played guard for SFU in 2019. Big-bodied project.

JUDD	TERRY
East Central
6-4	300
OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Helped the Tigers offense produce 4,434 total yards and 302 total points, good for spots on the ECU top-10 charts. All-GAC honorable mention.

AUSTIN	UNTERREINER
Emporia State
6-4	280
OG	Projected Position: OL

Moved into the offensive line rotation as a true freshman. 2019: First-Team All-MIAA. Was a two-time Squarehead Award winner as the top offensive lineman for the Hornets and was named the offensive player of the game for Emporia State against Fort Hays State. 2018: 2nd team All-MIAA.

CHRISTOPHER	WISSMAN
Bowie State
6-3	305
OG	OT Projected Position: OL

2019: All-CIAA Second Team. Part of an offensive line that helped team average 39.7 points/game. Balanced offense that gained over 2500 yards both on the ground and through the air, while scoring 28 TDs passing and another 28 rushing.

TYLER	ANDERSON
Newberry
6-3	295
OT	OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: 2nd team All-South Atlantic Conference. A versatile player, has started at nearly every position along the line in his career, including the first six games of the season at center before alternating between left tackle and center over the second half of the season.

BRANDON	ANDERSON
West Alabama
6-4	315
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: Anderson was a four-year starter for West Alabama, helping pave the way for record-breaking offensive numbers over the course of his career. He was a three-time All-Gulf South Conference first team selection. 2018: All-America, All-Region and All-GSC selection

LOGAN	BAILEY
Findlay
6-6	301
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: NCAA DII All-Super Region 1 team. Blocked for one of the top offenses in the country. Anchored a line that thrived on protecting the backfield, allowing just 1.36 sacks per game and 4.6 tackles-for-loss per game, both tops in the conference. Also paved the way for a rushing offense that ranked second in the conference at 221.4 yards per game and were key to Findlay's offense that scored 37.7 points per game, second in the league and 27th in the country. 2018: First team all-Great Midwest Athletic Conference. Second team all-region by Don Hansen.

JEREMY	BELL
Michigan Tech
6-4	301
OT	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Team's Offensive Lineman of the Year along with receiving the Ted Kearly Award for the second year in a row. The Ted Kearly Award goes to a player who exhibits passion, pride, and integrity on and off the field. Bell anchored the front line that helped put up some impressive offensive numbers in 2019. The Huskies averaged 19.0 points and 357.7 yards per game, including 140.9 yards per game rushing and 216.8 yards per game passing. Bell played in 37 career games and was an All-GLIAC Second Team selection in 2017 along with being named Tech's Offensive Lineman of the Year that season. He received Honorable Mention All-GLIAC accolades this season and is a four-time GLIAC All-Academic Team honoree.

ERIC	BESALDA
Minot State
6-3	295
OT	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Part of an offensive line that allowed just 13 sacks on the season. That total was the third-best in the Northern Sun. Their most impressive game as a group may have been against a Concordia-St. Paul defense that finished the season with the most sacks in the conference and second in the nation. The Beavers did not allow a sack in that contest and were a significant factor in the Beavers gaining 505 yards of offense, including 308 yards rushing.

DONALD	BOONE
Chowan
6-5	310
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: Earned his second All-Super Region II First Team selection to cap off his outstanding collegiate career. Boone helped lead the Hawks to a top-15 offense in the country and the top offense in the CIAA. Boone adds the All-Super Region selection to his list of accolades D2CCA Second Team All-Region, All-CIAA First Team Offensive Line, CFB Network All-American Second Team. 2018: American Football Coaches Association, (AFCA) All-American First Team, D2Football All-American Second Team, BOXTOROW All-American Honorable Mention, All-Super Region Two First Team, All-CIAA First Team Offensive Line.

KEVEON	BROADWATER
Tusculum
6-4	315
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-SAC first team for a second straight year on the offensive line. Started in all 11 games this season at left tackle. In 2018, he also received D2CAA All-Region second team honors and third team All-Region accolades by the Football Gazette. He finished his TU career with 42 consecutive starts on the offensive line. 2018: Hansen All-Super Region Two third team, Conference Commissioners Association's All-Super Region 2 second team, All-SAC first team

ALVIN	BROWN
Johnson C. Smith
6-5	340
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Brown earned All-CIAA second team distinction with a team-best 94 percent of his blocking assignments with 13 pancake blocks and only allowing two sacks and committing one penalty.

ISAIAH	COLBERT
Missouri Western
6-4	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

3-year starter. 2019: All-MIAA Honorable Mention. MIAA Academic Honor Roll. Started all 12 games. Contributed to a Griffon offensive line that rushed for over 2,500 yards
2018: All-MIAA Honorable Mention.

ZACH	COX
Fairmont State
6-5	295
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: MEC honorable mention. Helped pave the way for the 13th best offense in NCAA Division II as the Falcons averaged 483.6 yards of total offense per game this season. The Falcons also ranked 21st in the country in rushing (231.8), 22nd in the country in scoring (39.2) and 39th in the country in passing this season (251.8). The Fairmont State offensive front allowed just 19 sacks this season and paved the way for three backs that rushing for 100 yards in a game this season. 2018: 1st Team All-Mountain East Conference.

RYAN	DODD
Pittsburg State
6-5	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Honorable mention All-MIAA. Anchored an offensive line that helped the Gorillas average 40.5 points and 466.2 total yards per game. 2018: honorable mention All-American, 1st-team All-Region. 2016: honorable mention All-MIAA.

OSARO	EROMOSELE
New Haven
6-4	300
OT	OG Projected Position: OL

2019: Named to the Northeast-10 All-Conference Second team. Blocked for an offense that gained 1900 yards passing and 1881 rushing. 2018: Named to the Northeast-10 All-Conference Second team on offense. Started all 12 games as the left tackle on an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 rushing yards. Additionally, the o-line allowed the QB to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season. Prior to New Haven: Was a key part of the offensive line at Southern Connecticut State University for the 2016 and 2017 seasons.

MATAIO	FATUESI
Azusa Pacific
6-5	315
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: He was instrumental in providing protection for a Cougar offense that averaged nearly 100 yards rushing per game and a little under 250 yards of passing per game. The Cougars gained 340 yards of total offense per game. Azusa Pacific scored 20 or more points in five of its games.

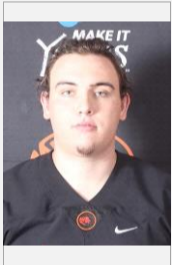

JOSH	FIELDS
Elizabeth City State
6-6	345
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Chosen to play in the FCS National Bowl. Big, talented lineman who played for an underachieving team. Has the size and ability to get a look at the next level.

JAYLEN	FLYE-SADLER
Lindenwood
6-6	325
OT	Projected Position: OL

Transfer from Austin Peay. 2019: First-team all-GLVC. Provided protection for one of the most explosive offenses in the nation. The Lions ranked sixth in NCAA Division II with 312.4 passing yards per game, while ranking 11th in the country with 262 first downs. The offensive line gave QB time to set a new school record for passing yards in a game, against one of the nation's top defenses at the time in UIndy.

WYATT	GALANTE
East Central
6-4	290
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: All-GAC First Team. Helped the Tigers offense produce 4,434 total yards and 302 total points, good for spots on the ECU top-10 charts. This is the second-straight All-GAC honor for Galante, after claiming honorable mention honors in 2018. 2018: All-GAC Honorable Mention.

COREY	GANZ
Southwestern Oklahoma
6-6	295
OT	TE Projected Position: OL/TE

2019: Chosen to participate in the Dream Bowl. Two-year starter for the Bulldogs, anchoring the offensive line during the last two seasons. Ganz was named honorable mention All-Great American Conference following his junior season and did not miss a game the past two years. 2018: All-GAC honorable mention as an offensive tackle, originally a TE.

JOSEPH	GONZALES
Western Oregon
6-6	315
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: D2Football.com All-America honorable mention team. Named to the D2CCA All-Super Region 4 second team, as well as to the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coaches' All-America second team. He was a finalist for the Gene Upshaw Award in Super Region 4, along with being named the co-Great Northwest Athletic Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year and to the first team. Gonzales started every game this season and helped the WOU offense shatter several program records since the program moved to Division II in 2000 rushing for the most yards in a single season with 2,672 and the most rushing touchdowns with 30. The 5,119 yards of total offense is also a new high mark in a season, as the Wolves recorded 53 total touchdowns this year. The passing game was also effective tossing for 21 touchdowns and 2,452 yards. The Wolves scored 375 points this season and picked up 238 first downs. He helped block for a trio of runners that all went for over 700-plus yards this season. 2018: All-GNAC Honorable Mention.

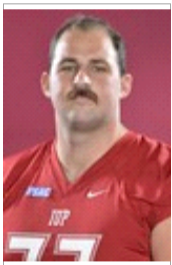

KEANU	GONZALEZ
Shaw
6-4	290
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Second Team All-Region. Became a two-time All-CIAA recipient and anchored the Bears offensive line that tallied a total of 3,601 yards, posting 26.2 points per game and gathering 2,164 passing yardage and 1,437 on the ground. 2018: Appeared in 10 games. Named First Team All-CIAA. Led the offensive line with a total offense of 3,117 yards, posting 22.9 points per game and gathering a total of 2,377 passing yardage and 740 rushing.

MASON	GRANTZ
Southern Arkansas
6-4	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Battling through injury during his senior season, Grantz remained a vital part of the offense as he manned his left tackle spot in protection of first-year starter Hayden Mallory. The honor is the second for Grantz in his two years at SAU after he appeared on the second team following the 2018 regular season. A Super Region 3 nominee for the Gene Upshaw Award, Grantz helped lead a young Mulerider offensive line that has allowed just five sacks in 2019, while also blocking for a Mulerider rushing attack that has totaled 2,050 yards rushing; the third-most under Keopple and the fourth time SAU has eclipsed the 2,000-yard rushing mark since 2009.

MATT	GUEVREMONT
Indiana (PA)
6-4	335
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Reserve line man. As part of rotation, appeared in every game and blocked for team record setting QB. Strong pass blocker. Line surrendered only 16 sacks in 370 pass attempts; while team's rushing average was 4.9 yds/carry.

CHRIS	HAWKINS
Urbana
6-5	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019 All-MEC Second Team. Part of an offensive line that blocked for a balanced offense that controlled the clock and gave up only 19 sacks.

CODY	HAYES
Tarleton
6-5	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

Has played both offensive and defensive line. 2019: Helped the Texans become the No. 2 offense in the nation and the OL ranked eighth in the nation during the regular season with fewest sacks allowed. Named first team All-LSC selection as well. Helped the offense account for 45 points per game and 531.7 yards per game, including 3,207 total rushing yards. The Texan offense amassed 600 yards of offense three times in a game this season, which was a school record.

EVAN	HEIM
Minnesota State
6-4	305
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Don Hansen All-American First Team. NSIC South Division All-Conference First Team. Heim started in all 15 games for the Mavericks on the offensive line and helped MSU set single-season records in points scored (712), rushing yards (4,246) and rushing touchdowns (59). The Maverick offensive line allowed just 19 sacks last season. Heim started in all 54 games for the Mavericks during the last four seasons. 2018: D2Football.com All-American First Team, Don Hansen All-American First Team and D2CCA All-American Second Team, All-NSIC First Team. 2017: All-NSIC First Team.

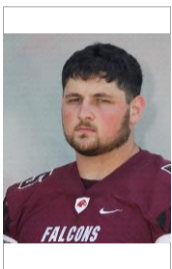

KYLE	HINTON
Washburn
6-3	310
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: This past season, Hinton earned first team All-American from d2football.com and second team All-American honors from the American Football Coaches Association and the Hansen Football Committee and a second all-region selection from the D2CCA and the Hansen Football Committee. He was a first team all-MIAA selection and also caught his first reception of his career with an 8-yard touchdown pass against Nebraska-Kearney in the Ichabods' 57-41 win the season finale. He also received an invitation to participate in the NFL Players Association Collegiate Bowl Game. 2018: First Team All-MIAA. 2017: third team all-MIAA.

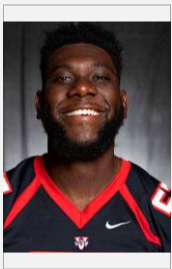

MARCELYS	JONES
Urbana
6-4	345
OT	Projected Position: OL

Transfer from Ohio State; left with bad blood. Transferred to Kentucky; dismissed for violating team rules. Transferred to Alcorn State didn't want to sit. Transferred to Winston-Salem State. Transferred to Urbana. Very talented. Very troubled.

GARRETT	KAPSTEIN-O'BRIEN
Fairmont State
6-5	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Second team All-MEC. Helped pave the way for the 13th best offense in NCAA Division II as the Falcons averaged 483.6 yards of total offense per game this season. The Falcons also ranked 21st in the country in rushing (231.8), 22nd in the country in scoring (39.2) and 39th in the country in passing this season (251.8). The Fairmont State offensive front allowed just 19 sacks this season and paved the way for three backs that rushing for 100 yards in a game this season. 2018: 2nd Team All-Mountain East Conference. 2017: First team All-MEC.

BRANDON	KEMP
Valdosta State
6-7	310
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Earned first team All-GSC honors this season and second team accolades in 2018. Was an anchor on the offensive line this year that helped the offense to fourth nationally in total offense at 522.1 yards per game to lead the league. Blocked for D2CCA Super Region Two Player of the Year in quarterback Rogan Wells and the line helped the Blazers to 260.2 yards rushing per game for 11th nationally and first in the GSC, while the team passed for 261.9 yards for 36th nationally and second in the league. VSU is second nationally in third down conversion percentage this season at a .528 clip. Sealey earned AP Division II Second Team All-America honors this season

MARK	KONKLE
Hillsdale
6-5	293
OT	Projected Position: OL

4-year starter. 2019: Honorable mention All-American. Was as consistent as they come in his four seasons as a starter on the offensive line, the last two at left tackle. A team captain, Konkle was named the G-MAC Offensive Lineman of the Year and earned First-Team All-Conference and All-Region recognition. 2018: 1st Team All-GMAC.

CHRIS	LARSEN
Slippery Rock
6-4	320
OT	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Named to first team AP All-American, All-PSAC and Super Region One honors and being named as one of the eight national finalists for the Gene Upshaw Division II Lineman of the Year. The Rock's starting left tackle finished fourth in the national voting for the Upshaw Award and was the second highest vote-getter among all offensive linemen in the nation. He picks up his first career All-America honor after starting all 14 games for SRU this season and helping The Rock to boast one of the best offensive units in the country. Larsen started 44 career games, including 29 straight to end his career. The Rock's offense ranks first in the nation in passing efficiency (176.9) and first downs (356), third in scoring (46.2 points per game), fifth in passing (329.9 yards per game) and completion percentage (66.7), seventh in fourth down conversions (69.6 percent), eighth in red zone scoring (91.7 percent) and ninth in total offense (501.7 yards per game).

RYAN	MAGUIRE
Ashland
6-6	294
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: Maguire is a first-team all-region selection after anchoring the Eagle offensive line for the third season in a row. Maguire, who ended his AU career with 34 straight starts at left tackle, also garnered first-team All-GLIAC recognition this past fall. 2018: All-GAC honorable mention.

JOE	MURPHY
Azusa Pacific
6-4	310
OT	OC	Projected Position: OL

2019: 1st team All-GNAC. Stepped into a new role for the Cougars in his senior season, as he was moved from right tackle to center midway through the season to help lead an injured and young offensive line. He was instrumental in providing protection for a Cougar offense that averaged nearly 100 yards rushing per game and a little under 250 yards of passing per game. The Cougars gained 340 yards of total offense per game. Azusa Pacific scored 20 or more points in five of its games. 2018: 2nd team All-GNAC.

ERIC	OSTROW
Shepherd
6-3	300
OT	OG	Projected Position: OL

2019: Don Hansen NCAA Division II All-American honorable mention. First Team All-PSAC East. Was a key component in an offensive line that helped Shepherd offense rank nationally in numerous offensive categories.

AARON	RAY
Chowan
6-5	300
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: All-CIAA Second Team honors. Helped produce a program best 2,757 yards rushing, 13th ranked offense in the country, and the top offense in the CIAA for the second straight year. 2018: All-CIAA Honorable Mention Offensive Line. 2016: All-CIAA Rookie Team.

JOHN	ROBINSON
Bowie State
6-6	300
OT		Projected Position: OL

2019: All-CIAA Second Team. Part of an offensive line that helped team average 39.7 points/game. Balanced offense that gained over 2500 yards both on the ground and through the air, while scoring 28 TDs passing and another 28 rushing.

KEN	ROMAN
Indiana (PA)
6-5	305
OT	Projected Position: OL

Transfer from Rutgers. 2019: 2nd team All-PSAC West. 2 plus-year starter. Blocked for team record setting QB. Strong pass blocker. Line surrendered only 16 sacks in 370 pass attempts; while team's rushing average was 4.9 yds/carry.

JUSTIN	ROSENDAHL
Quincy University
6-4	300
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: Second team All-GLVC for the third straight season. He helped the Hawks have three rushers with over 300 yards. Rosendahl also was a leader on an offensive line that gave up just 20 sacks and averaged 141.5 rushing yards per game this season. 2018: 2nd Team All-GLVC. 2017: Second Team All-GLVC

SHAWN	ROUSE
Missouri Western
6-3	280
OT	Projected Position: OL

4-year starter. 2019: Second Team All-MIAA. MIAA Scholar Athlete. MIAA Academic Honor Roll. CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America. started all 12 games. Contributed to a Griffon offensive line that rushed for over 2,500 yards. 2018: Third Team All-MIAA. 2017: Honorable Mention All-MIAA.

MATTHEW	SNOW
Pace
6-6	305
OT	Projected Position: OL

2019: 1st team All-NE10. Serving as the Setters' left tackle, Snow protected the quarterback's blindside through 10 starts this season. He helped Pace to over 3,700 total yards of offense, 22 passing touchdowns and 20 rushing touchdowns. 2018: Started in all 10 games on the offensive line. Helped the Setters to fourth-highest rushing total in the NE10, while allowing just 15 sacks. 2016: Named to the NE-10 All-Rookie Team.

KYLE	STEGEMAN
Augustana
6-7	325
OT	Projected Position: OL

Doninating two-year starter. 2019: Key part of an offensive line that ranks 19th in the nation in tackles for loss allowed. He also helped protect an offense that racked up 611 yards of total offense against Minot State (Oct. 26), the eighth-most in program history.

TYLER	STILWELL
Central Oklahoma
6-3	295
OT	OG Projected Position: OL

Took over a starting job as a sophomore and didn't look back. Is a strong blocker with athleticism. 2019: Fifth-year senior, four-year letter winner, and three-year starter for the Bronchos. The offensive lineman from Yukon, Okla. also earned Second Team All-MIAA last season. He's the seventh offensive lineman to earn All-MIAA honors under Bobeck and is the third to do so twice. Stillwell has blocked for an offense that has averaged over 30 points per game during his time. 2018: All-MIAA Second Team.

ZACH STRATMOEN

Southwest Minnesota

6-6 295

OT Projected Position: OL

2019: Was named second team All-NSIC South. . He finished his career appearing in all 44 games and started every game the past three seasons. Stratmoen helped an SMSU offense rank second in the league in passing yards and seventh in total offense. 2018: All-NSIC South honorable mention

JUSTIN TINDULL

Kutztown

6-3 285

OT OG Projected Position: OL

2019: Repeated as a Don Hansen Gazette All-Region Third Team pick and is also a two-time All-PSAC East selection after starting all 13 games at left tackle for the 11-2 Golden Bears. He was a catalyst up front as Kutztown battered opponents for more than 5,800 yards of total offense and 35.5 points per game. The Golden Bears' pass protection was among the best in Super Region 1, ranking fifth with just 1.31 sacks allowed per game. Tindull and the o-line also helped KU rank eighth in SR1 in passing offense, ninth in scoring and 11th in rushing offense. He racked up 43 career starts, including 34 straight to close out his career. 2018: All-PSAC East First Team. Don Hansen Gazette All-Region Third Team.

AARON TURNER

Western Oregon

6-7 300

OT Projected Position: OL

2019: Started every game along the offensive line this year at center helping the WOU offense shatter several program records since the program moved to Division II in 2000 rushing for the most yards in a single season with 2,672 and the most rushing touchdowns with 30. The 5,119 yards of total offense is also a new high mark in a season, as the Wolves recorded 53 total touchdowns this year. The passing game was also effective tossing for 21 touchdowns and 2,452 yards. The Wolves scored 375 points this season and picked up 238 first downs. He helped block for a trio of runners that all went for over 700-plus yards this season. 2018: All-GNAC First Team.

CHRIS-JORDON ULUFALE

Western New Mexico

6-3 315

OT Projected Position: OL

Four-year starter. 2019: All-Lone Star honorable mention. A major contributor for the team along the offensive line since 2016, starting a majority of the games at left tackle.