

David Adams Arkansas-Pine Bluff 6-4 300 OT

Starter who has the size. Turned it around after missing two full seasons due to academic ineligibility. Became a leader on the O-line.

Justin Adekoya Eastern Kentucky 6-5 300 OT

Preseason All-OVC by league coaches and media relations contacts, preseason All-OVC first team selection by CollegeSportsMadness, started all 11 games at left tackle. Helped EKV average 247.6 passing yards per game, third in the OVC and 32nd in the nation. Eastern totaled 500 or more yards of offense four times. Was the starting left guard when Bennie Coney set a new school record with 464 passing yards at Tennessee Tech. Helped the Colonels rush for 346 yards at Austin Peay, eclipsing the 300-yard rushing mark for the first time since 2014.

Royus Amos Samford 6-7 345 OT OG

Has played guard and tackle. Blocked for a very potent passing offense. 2016 was his first year as a full-time starter.

Erik Austell Charleston Southern 6-4 290 OT OG

A left tackle, earned All-American honors from the Associated Press, STATS FCS and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) in 2016. The senior captain was an integral part of the nucleus that powered CSU to 35 wins, two Big South Conference championships and two playoff berths over the last four years. He started 39 games and was a two-time All-Big South pick (2015 & 2016) during that time.

Chris Bordelon Nicholls State 6-6 315 OT

Starter, 2nd All Southland, part of a line ranked fifth in the Southland in sacks allowed at 20, which was eight less than the previous season.

Zach Borens Indiana State 6-8 380 OT

Seeking a medical redshirt after surgery for shoulder injury.

Connor Bozick Delaware 6-5 320 OT OG

Five-year senior who capped his career as one of the top offensive linemen in Delaware history. Two-time All-Colonial Athletic Association selection appeared in two post-season all-star games following the 2016 season. Versatile lineman who played at both tackle and guard during his career. Appeared in 46 career games with 24 straight starts to finish his career. Never missed a game since his redshirt freshman season at Delaware. Big frame with good footwork and an outstanding athlete.

Devlin Brennan Bucknell 6-4 310 OT

Career: 38 games played, 24 games started. 2016 (Senior): One of five seniors to regularly play on the offensive line; appeared in all 11 games with 10 starts at left guard.

Ryan Bristow Presbyterian 6-5 280 OT

Started all 11 games at right tackle. Part of the offensive that allowed RB to rush for 158 yards against Campbell. Finished the year having started the last 29 games of his career

Ryan Brodie Monmouth (NJ) 6-5 320 OT

Back-up lineman and transfer from Rutgers.

Aharown Campbell Liberty 6-5 355 OT

Finished with 42 career games played, including 23 career starts

2016: Saw playing time in nine games, starting six contests. Started at three different positions during the year (right guard, right tackle and left guard). Helped freshman quarterback throw for 1,931 yards, third most by a freshman in program history.

Khalid Cannon Yale 6-6 305 OT

2016: Started six games at left tackle. Missed four with injury. 2015: Started in all 10 games. Received major varsity letter. 2014: Started all 10 games. Anchored offensive line at right tackle. Helped Yale lead the FCS in total offense. Paved way for Bushnell Cup winner Tyler Varga.

Nick Carr South Dakota State 6-8 325 OT OG

In 2015, was injured in spring practice and missed the entire season. Huge lineman with all the basics. Can be developed into a good pro lineman.

Patrick Carroll Montana State 6-5 320 OT

UNLV transfer. Saw significant time in 2016 with one starting assignment.

Dante Cattaneo Lamar 6-4 295 OT

Played in 22 games, earning 18 starts during his two years on campus. 2016: Played in and started all 11 games. Due to a number of injuries on the offensive side of the ball, Cattaneo protected five different quarterback during his final season in a Red and White uniform. One of the team's most consistent linemen all season.

Preston Collier Indiana State 6-7 320 OT

Two-year starter on the offensive line at Kentucky Christian before starting two-years at ISU. Protection helped INS to fourth-best passing average in the Valley (245.3 YPG).

Desmond Cooper NC Central 6-6 325 OT

All-MEAC Second Team in 2015. Going into 2016 season was voted to Preseason All-MEAC First Team. Announced to Preseason BOXTOROW All-America Team, honoring the top players from HBCUs. Did not start in 2016, however saw significant time.

Johnny Cruz Hampton 6-3 290 OT

2nd All MEAC, anchored an offensive line that allowed Hampton to rank second in the MEAC in passing offense (219.1 yards per game) and third in the conference in total offense (346.0 yards per game).

Nick Dachota Indiana State 6-8 310 OT

Big lineman who had trouble breaking into the starting line-up since starting the first seven games of the 2014 season at left guard. Did see considerable time however.

Julie'n Davenport Bucknell 6-7 315 OT OG

One of 13 players to be named All-Patriot League four times, Davenport was a member of the STATS FCS Walter Payton Award Watch List this past fall. He was a three-time First Team All-Patriot League selection after being named to the Second Team as a freshman in 2013. The only member of Bucknell's senior class to start all 44 games over the last four years, Davenport was a two-year team captain who was a First Team STATS FCS Preseason All-America selection and was named to the Athlon Sports Preseason FCS All-America Team. He was a Second Team STATS FCS All-American following last season. This year, Davenport earned All-America honors from STATS, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press and AFCA.

Chase Davis Davidson 6-4 290 OT

Davis started in all 11 games, helping anchor a Davidson offensive line that allowed just 14 sacks, tied for fourth lowest in the PFL. Also earned the Bill Gammon '70 Wildcat Award for his efforts over four years.

Michael Demos Butler 6-4 290 OT

FCS BOWL All-Star Game. In 2016, the offensive lineman played in all 11 games after missing the entire 2015 season. He anchored a BU rushing attack that averaged 171-yards per game. Demos was selected to the All-PFL Second team and Academic All-PFL Second Team in 2016. Demos also served as a tri-captain for the 2016 season.

Brandon DeWitt Sam Houston State 6-3 290 OT OG

Part of the Kats offense that averaged 54.2 points and 584.0 yards per game in 2016, while ranking fifth in the country in allowing just eight sacks for the year.

Matt Diaz Wagner 6-6 300 OT OG

A mobile, talented athlete who boasts tremendous size and explosive at the point of attack which has allowed him to earn a starting spot at left tackle in each of the past two seasons.

Rich Duncan-Murphy Marist 6-4 300 OT

HM All Pioneer

Jessamen Dunker Tennessee State 6-5 305 OT OG

Florida transfer (theft arrest), 5.15/40, 2nd Stats FCS All American, Senior Bowl, 1st AP All American, Boxtorow All American, 1st All OVC, played in all 11 games at left tackle for an offensive line which surrendered the least amount of sacks in the Ohio Valley Conference. Dunker has earned an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl and was tagged as an early-to-mid round draft selection by several publications.

Patrick Fogarty Stetson 6-3 290 OT OG

HM All Pioneer. Helped resurrect the Stetson football program after a 55 year absence as one of the original signees. Solid leadership, good basic skills.

Taylor Gadbois SE Louisiana 6-7 315 OT OG

3rd AP All American, 1st All Southland, In his first season after transferring from Miami, Gadbois joins Donald Usry (2006), Gasten Gabriel (2013) and Jonathan Braddock (2014) on the list of SLU first team All-Southland offensive lineman. Gadbois split time between both tackle spots and Southeastern posted a 7-1 record in games in which the Dallas, Georgia native started.

Larson Graham Duquesne 6-5 300 OT OG

Wyoming transfer. Three-time All-Conference and four-year returning starter on the offensive line. has started all possible games in his collegiate career at right tackle. Team captain.

Josh Hanson Portland State 6-7 295 OT

Tremendous size and athleticism at the offensive line position but could not seem to break in to the starting lineup.

Beau Iverson Yale 6-9 305 OT

Started eight games at right tackle. He helped protect a freshman quarterback who led the Blue to victory in The Game.

Nick Johnson Jacksonville State 6-2 285 OT OG

1st All OVC part of a unit, which featured the same five starters in every game, paved the way for the top offense and the No. 1 rushing offense in the OVC in 2016.

TJ Jones Florida A&M 6-5 300 OT

Moved into a starting spot on the offensive line at right guard as a freshman. Moved to the prime protector's spot at left tackle early in sophomore campaign and stayed locked in ever since.

Jacob Julian Northern Arizona 6-4 305 OT

2016 All-Big Sky Preseason Team honoree, after having earned third team honors in 2015. He was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year for NAU in 2015, after having started all 11 games and helping pave the way for the school's fourth 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. He was a member of the offensive line that helped the Lumberjacks rank seventh in the nation in scoring offense and eighth in passing offense. Starter, 5.27/40

Evan Kanz Eastern Illinois 6-5 295 OT OG

Was named a second team All-OVC selection for the second time at offensive tackle. Kanz was the veteran linemen on a unit that ranked third in the league in total offense at 404.8 yards per game. The Panthers offense was first in the OVC in 3rd down conversion.

Max Kelly Montana 6-7 305 OT

Big lineman who, while a backup, had multiple starts in his Montana career.

Mitch Kirsch James Madison 6-6 300 OT OG

Started 12 games at right tackle. Consensus FCS First Team All-American. STATS FCS First Team All-American. AFCA Coaches' FCS First Team All-American. Associated Press FCS First Team All-American. Walter Camp Football Foundation FCS All-American. HERO Sports FCS First Team All-American. First Team All-CAA Offensive Lineman. ECAC First Team All-Star. VaSID First Team All-State. Roanoke Times First Team All-State. Part of an offensive line that set JMU and CAA single-season records in scoring (700), rushing offense (4,125), total offense (7,612) and first downs (380). Offense led the FCS in completion percentage (70.8%), team pass efficiency (181.69) and first downs. Also ranked second in scoring (46.7), third in total offense (507.5), fourth in third-down conversions (50%), fifth in rushing (275.0) and 10th in turnovers lost (13). JMU produced more than 50 points in six games this season with an average win margin at 25.5 points per game.

Rob Kosharek Holy Cross 6-6 305 OT

Two-plus year starter. Part of an offensive line which paved the way for the Crusaders to average 356.0 total yards, 103.8 rushing yards and 23.5 point per game on the year, even with the team using three different starting quarterbacks and three different starting tailbacks due to injuries.

Andrew Lauderdale New Hampshire 6-6 295 OT OG

3rd All CAA, was a lynchpin on the offensive line, where he started all 13 games at left tackle. He helped UNH's offense average 28.5 points per game and 379.2 yards per game with a breakdown of 181.2 rushing yards and 197.9 passing yards per game. The 'Cats averaged 4.6 yards per rush and 5.2 yards per play. With those numbers, UNH ranked third in the CAA in both scoring and total offense, as well as fourth in rushing offense.

Javarius Leamon SC State 6-7 315 OT OG

2nd All MEAC, NFLPA Bowl, originally signed on to play at Clemson. Has the size and frame for NFL. Needs to improve technique especially footwork and strength; both correctable.

Landon Lechler North Dakota State 6-7 306 OT

1st AP All American, 1st All MVC, started out as the backup to All-American Billy Turner at left tackle before taking over his three-year starting position at right tackle.

Kevin Malloy Albany (NY) 6-5 280 OT TE

Third-Team All-CAA Offense. This award represents Malloy's third straight third-team All-CAA honor. Malloy played in all 46 games of his career, starting every game the last three seasons on the offensive line. At left tackle in 2016, Malloy helped UAlbany to the conference's fifth-best scoring offense (24.9 ppg) and rushing offense (167.2 ypg), opening up opportunities for running back Ibitokun-Hanks' record-setting performances. Played TE in 2013.

Sam Marlin Fordham 6-8 300 OT

Two-year starter. He helped Fordham lead the Patriot League and rank fourth in the NCAA FCS in total offense, averaging 498.2 yards/game, and lead the league and rank 12th in the NCAA FCS in rushing offense, averaging 229.7 yards/game. The Rams also led the Patriot League and were fourth in the nation in scoring, averaging 40.1 points per game, and second in the League and 29th in the nation in first downs (257).

Christian Marshall Jackson State 6-5 290 OT

Considered on of the leaders of the O-Line for the Tigers. Good size, room for more. Basically sound with nice upside.

Trevor Mason Incarnate Word 6-7 300 OT

Started last game of 2015 and worked way into starting line-up in 2016. Good size with room to grow.

Justin Miller Grambling State 6-5 280 OT

Boxtorow All American (2x), 1st All SWAC. Lineman for an offensive juggernaut that averaged 39.6 points per game.

Harrison Monk Furman 6-4 285 OT

Three-year starter. Provided solid protection for a good passing game that gave up only 12 sacks all season.

Dave Morrison Dartmouth 6-5 315 OT

1st All Ivy. Served as one of the three team captains for Dartmouth and was also named to the All-Ivy League First Team as announced yesterday. He was the rock of an offensive line that yielded fewer sacks (13) than any other Ivy League squad while ranking first in the conference in passing yards. Morrison's prowess at his position helped the Big Green amass over 400 yards per game this season to rank second in the league behind co-champion Princeton, including 615 against Brown in the penultimate game, the most by a Dartmouth team in 79 years. Started all 10 games and played in 38 of the 40 games in his four-year career, starting 21.

Islan Muhamed Cornell 6-4 275 OT

He was part of an offensive line that allowed five fewer sacks in 2016 than in 2015 and blocked for three 100-yard rushing games and three 300-yard passing games. In all, the Big Red's scoring was up 8.8 points per game and total offense increased 57 yards per game.

Brett Niederreither Mercer 6-3 300 OT OG

Former DT, Temple transfer, 2nd All SoCon, led Mercer as the media bestowed first team honors while the coaches named him to the second team. A team captain, Niederreither started all 11 games at tackle for Mercer this season and finished his career with 31 consecutive starts.

Laurin O'Briant Campbell 6-8 295 OT

HM All Pioneer. Helped Campbell rank third in the PFL in rushing offense this season, standing 14th nationally at 208.2 yards per game. Also helped the Camels rank fourth in the PFL in total offense, standing 26th among FCS competition at 408.8 yards per game.

Kendall Pace Columbia 6-5 300 OT

Earned the Jack Armstrong Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman Award after proving to be the Lions' most valuable offensive lineman in 2016. A 2016 All-Ivy League Second Team selection, Pace started all 10 games in 2016, concluded his career with 30 consecutive starts and accumulated 39 career starts in his four-year career.

Tyrone Patterson UT-Martin 6-3 320 OT

Started the last nine games of the season. As a squad, the Skyhawks posted a sack per dropback percentage of 4.79 percent to lead all league foes. He started in all 12 games for the Skyhawks at center while grading out at 84 percent or better all season. Manhandling opposing defenses, he was responsible for 37 knockdowns on the season.

Dan Pawlak Illinois State 6-5 290 OT

Started all 12 games at left tackle for the Redbirds. In 2015: Started all 13 games at left tackle for the Redbirds and was a key member of the offensive line unit which led the way for First-Team All-American and two-time MVFC Offensive Player of the Year Marshaun Coprich.

CJ Phillips Morehead State 6-2 270 OT

2nd All Pioneer, blocked for an offensive unit that led the PFL in passing (310.5 yards per game) and ranked second in total offense (445.7). The line also ranked fourth in the conference in fewest sacks allowed. Phillips started all 46 games of his college career.

Marcus Piechowski Northern Colorado 6-5 295 OT OG

Four-year starter who, 2016, guided the offense line to help UNC rush for 1,796 positive yards and 19 touchdowns on the ground.

Max Rich Harvard 6-7 315 OT

Selected to AP All-America third team. Chosen as winner of Joseph E. Wolf Award (top interior lineman). Tabbed to the All-Ivy League first team. Named to the New England Football Writers' All-New England team. Started all nine games he appeared in. William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist. NFF National Scholar-Athlete Nominee. Selected to ECAC FCS All-Star team.

Curtis Riser Sam Houston State 6-4 320 OT

Texas transfer, 2nd All Southland the third Bearkat offensive lineman to earn all-league honors, making Sam Houston the only school in 2016 with three offensive linemen landing on either the first or second team. The Kats have averaged 54.2 points and 584.0 yards per game in 2016, while ranking fifth in the country in allowing just eight sacks for the year.

Iyan Roseborough VMI 6-3 335 OT

Has both experience as a starter and reserve on the offensive line. started at right tackle in 2016.

Christian Schneider UC Davis 6-6 305 OT OG

HM All Big Sky, started every game for UC Davis, moved from right tackle to the left side this year, ending his career by starting 40 of the 41 games he played.

Trent Scott Grambling State 6-5 305 OT

2nd All SWAC. Lineman for an offensive juggernaut that averaged 39.6 points per game.

Brad Seaton Villanova 6-7 310 OT

2nd All CAA, started all 11 regular games and has now made 28 consecutive starts dating back to the start of the 2014 season. He has started all but three of the 31 career games he has played in, and is one of the key players for a strong Villanova offensive line. Through the end of the regular season, the Wildcats were averaging 212.7 rushing yards per contest and 373.5 total offensive yards per game. Villanova ranks third in CAA Football and 19th in the nation in rushing offense, and is fourth in the league in scoring with 25.4 points per game. The running game has been as consistent as it has been good; in 11 games, the Wildcats have surpassed 200 yards on the ground six times and have tallied seven games with multiple rushing touchdowns.

Grant Siegel Colgate 6-4 295 OT

Three-year starter. he Raiders O-line ranked among the top 10 nationally for the second year in a row in both fewest sacks and fewest TFLs allowed.

Matt Stoneberg Monmouth (NJ) 6-5 310 OT

5th -year senior and two-year starter. Helped lead the way for two of the conference's top receivers and running back who had the third most yards for a running back. MU's offensive unit finished second in sacks allowed despite attempting more passes than any other conference team.

Jamaal Symmonett NC Central 6-3 300 OT

2nd All MEAC posted the team's second-highest grade of 89 percent on blocking assignments with 27 pancake blocks.

Jackson Thiebes Montana 6-5 305 OT OG

3rd All Big Sky (2x) earned a place on the all-conference third team to accompany the Paul Weskamp Award he received at UM's annual awards banquet for the team's most outstanding offensive lineman.

McCauley Todd Montana 6-7 305 OT

Suffered an injury in fall camp in 2015 , but returned to play in nine games and earn eight starts at offensive tackle. In 2016, saw significant time at mostly OG.

Jerry Ugokwe William & Mary 6-8 305 OT

1st All CAA, 3rd Stats FCS All American, NFLPA Bowl, 3rd AP All American, established himself as one of the nation's elite offensive linemen this season en route to garnering All-America distinction by the Associated Press and STATS. Additionally, he recently competed in the 2017 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. Although Ugokwe did not begin playing football until his junior year in high school, he continued his impressive trajectory this fall and earned first-team All-Colonial Athletic Association honors and was a first-team VaSID All-State choice. A 2017 Senior Bowl Watch List selection, he helped anchor the Tribe's offensive line that ranked 11th nationally in fewest tackles for a loss allowed per game (4.18). A staple on W&M's offensive line throughout his career, Ugokwe totaled a team-high 42 starts during the past four seasons and was a two-time all-conference selection.

Dakota Vermillion Indiana State 6-7 310 OT OG
HM All MVC, Played and started in all 11 games at left tackle. Graded out at 84.3 percent. Did not allow a sack until Week 9 at Youngstown State (allowed four total in the last three weeks against nationally-ranked defenses in YSU, UNI and NDSU). Allowed .009 sacks per pass attempt (419 total pass attempts). 51 total knockdowns. Protection helped INS to fourth-best passing average in the Valley (245.3 YPG).

Jimmy Vogel Dayton 6-3 290 OT
The only two-time First Team All-PFL lineman this season. A four-year starter, 32 of his starts came in front of UD's career rushing leader. Dayton was second in the PFL in scoring offense (32.9) and rushing offense (209.5). Dayton's top three rushers all averaged at least 5.8 yards per rush in 2016.

Jylan Ware Alabama State 6-8 300 OT
Starter. Despite being a 6-8 offensive tackle with remarkable balance and lateral control in a relatively weak class, Ware continues to be overlooked for major all-star games and the Combine. He'll be a sleeper offensive tackle to note who has legitimate left tackle potential."

Nick Ziegenbein Western Illinois 6-9 330 OT
Huge lineman who never seemed to be able to burst into the starting lineup.